

THE POETICS OF EVERYDAY ABOLITION

A LOVE LANGUAGE

WELCOME!

In this portal of the pluriverse, we engage in collective sense-making. We are not here to learn answers, rather we seek to explore the complexities and messy entanglements that emerge from our shared visions of abolitionist worldmaking.

SITUATING OURSELVES

What if we get to be free?

SITUATING OURSELVES

What if we get to be free?

How do we build a poetic of radical love? What would it mean to practice everyday abolition?

SITUATING OURSELVES

What if we get to be free?

How do we build a poetic of radical love? What would it mean to practice everyday abolition?

What would it mean to birth a constellation of visions and strategies for collective liberation?

WHAT IF WE GET TO BE FREE?

AUDRE LORDE

"The true focus of revolutionary change is never merely the oppressive situations which we seek to escape, but that piece of the oppressor that lives in all of us."

SAIDIYA HARTMAN

"So much of the work of oppression is policing the imagination."

HOW DO WE BUILD A POETIC OF RADICAL LOVE? WHAT WOULD IT MEAN TO PRACTICE EVERYDAY ABOLITION?

JEEZ, THAT WAS A LOT!

Let's take a moment to pause and reflect.

What emotions are coming up for you? Where are these emotions sitting in your body?
How are you responding to them?

*WHAT WOULD IT MEAN TO BIRTH A
CONSTELLATION OF VISIONS AND STRATEGIES FOR COLLECTIVE LIBERATION?*
